FAYETTEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR WINS $5,000 COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP

Fayetteville, Ark. – January 16, 2004 – Adele Fournet, a senior at Fayetteville High School won a $5,000 NextStudent Scholarship to the college or university of her choice by searching for scholarships on the NextStudent website, at www.nextstudent.com.

Miss Fournet has earned a 4.18 grade point average at Fayetteville High School and has applied to eight colleges and universities, including the University of Arkansas. She is interested in two fields of study: film and television as well as medicine. “This scholarship couldn’t have happened to a more deserving, hard working student,” said Dawn Norman, guidance counselor at Fayetteville High School. “We have every confidence that Adele will go far and do well in her future based on what she has achieved here.”

The $5,000 scholarship is offered by NextStudent, a company that helps students and their families find ways to afford college by providing resources such as the NextStudent Scholarship Search engine, which is updated daily, free of charge, advertisement-free and completely confidential. NextStudent also assists families with federal low-cost student and parent loans, after the search for grants and scholarships has been exhausted.

“We are dedicated to helping college-bound students find free money – scholarships and grants are excellent sources of money that don’t have to be paid back. Our scholarship search engine has over 800,000 awards representing $2.8 billion dollars that is available to students,” said Rob Creel, president of NextStudent. “When other students hear about Adele Fournet’s $5,000 scholarship award we hope they will get excited about scholarship searching and “start their engines.”
